Spends All Day in County

Murphy Battles For Senate Seat

PARTY UNITY was the order of the day Monday when U.S. Senate Candidate George Murphy, left, and State Assembly candidate James L. (Jim) Christensen met at Republican Headquarters in Upland. Shown with the candidates is Mrs. June Wallin, director of the headquarters. Both Murphy and Christensen discussed problems of the state and nation in talks at Upland, Fontana and before the Rotary Club in Montclair.

George Murphy, Republican candidate for the United States Senate, charged Monday in a talk at Montclair Rotary Club that his opposition doesn't dare talk on the issues of the campaign.

Instead Pierre Salinger and company must rely on slogans, platitudes and insults Murphy said in a talk in which he told of his background from orphan at 14 to vice president of echnicolor Corp., and hit hard at state and national Democrat administrations.

Murphy spoke to the Rotarians who invited service club members from throughout the valley to listen in. More than 100 attended.

Best known as a movie actor, Murphy also has been a coal miner, three-time president of the AFL-CIO affiliated Screen Actors Guild, and worked with the Red Cross, Community Chest, Boy Scouts and is a national board member of the Arthritis and Rheumatism Foundation. Murphy is a former GOP state chairman.

He is also an ex-Democrat, he revealed Monday. Murphy said he changed his registraaid he changed his registraa tion about 1939 when he became aware of influence groups in the Democratic party that he could not abide, groups that did not believe in the U.S. Constitution, some called Fabian Socialists, others Communists.

He said he became a student of such groups and changed from a dormant Democrat to an active Republican.

Murphy said everyone has a right to know all about the background of the candidates on all levels, and hoped that they would take the time to learn all about the background of his opponent prior to Nov. 3.

Attacking the Democrat administration policies at home and abroad, Murphy said a sound fiscal policy was needed.

"Some people don't want our free enterprise system to succeed," the candidate said. "They pile on greater and greater tax loads, compete with private enterprise, and interfer with private enterprise."

He said he listened to a long talk once about the "public sector" and "private sector" of the economy and asked the speaker if the private sector were not more efficient, and was told "yes."

He also asked if the "private sector" did not also have to provide the funds, and was told, "yes."

And was also told that the "public sector" would never break down the private sector.

But that is just what happened to the world's three most successful civilizations, Murphy said.

"We've had no foreign policy since Yalta, Teheran and Potsdam," Murphy declared.

The last four or five years we have alienated all our historical friends. We have centralized control of nuclear weapons, making the U.S. the target for nuclear weapons, he continued.

"We have made the world safe for conventional wars," Murphy stated.

"We are a paper tiger. Nations we have promised to help don't dare be friendly with us. They make deals with Russia."

About the United Nations, Murphy said we should stay in it, but make it run according to the rules. He said the record of accomplishments of the UN was pretty sad.

If Russia won't pay its dues, the USSR should not be allowed to vote, and Russia won't quit because the UN is giving the Russians the greatest sounding board they ever had, according to the candidate.

Continuing on foreign affairs, he mentioned the sale of weat to Russia. There were promises from the administration that Russia would pay in gold, helping the U.S. gold reserves, that wheat would be shipped in US ships, and that wheat was needed to feed starving Russians.

Truth is, Murphy said that Russia took half the wheat and used it to produce industrial alcohol, didn't permit US ships in many Russian ports, didn't pay for the wheat at all, which made it a gift from the American taxpayers, and sent half the wheat to Communist satellites to keep them from revolting.

In other charges Murphy said—

—The United States information agency has been under the leadership only of men who are Russian apologists.

—Paid agents are the agitators causing "race" troubles, which is now coming out in newspaper headlines.

—Pictures of rockets in Cuba were withheld from President Kennedy for three days in the Cuban crises. By whom? he asked, stating that anyone who would withhold such information from the President must go.

—When the secretary of state says the US has stopped Communist advances in taking over various areas of the world he is not telling the truth.

Regarding military decisions, he said President Johnson and three other civilians made the military decision on the Bay of Tonkin (Viet Nam) without military advisers being present, and then went on Television, giving the enemy a 90-minute notice of a coming US attack.

He said the people of the United States have not been told the truth about Viet Nam, but now it is beginning to come out that the so-called religious wars is a Communist plot.

He said he believes in freedom of information and a free press, and disagrees with an administration official who said it was all right for the administration to lie to the American public.

Murphy was given standing ovation a tthe end of his talk, with but a few persons in the room remaining seated (all of whom were Democrats).

MAYOR A. M. HAWKINS, JR., center, welcomes the members of Upland Legion Post 73 baseball team on their return to Upland Tuesday night with the National Championship. He is shown with the champs in front of the City Hall where an enthusiastic crowd of over 300 gathered after meeting the team at Ontario Airport and hailed them all the way to Upland via motorcade led by a fire truck.

Upland Legion Post Nine Captures U.S. Championship

A roaring welcome greeted the Champion Upland American Legion Post 73 baseball team Tuesday evening upon return from Little Rock, Ark. where the local diamond stars captured the American Legion "Little World Series" championship.

The team was met at the plane at Onario International Airport and paraded up Euclid Ave. in a motorcade to 9th St. and then up Second Ave. to the Upland City Hall.

In charge of the short-notice arrangements for the motorcade to Upland from the airport and the brief ceremonies at Upland City Hall was Vern Orum.

Additional welcoming plans are in the making including a Chamber of Commerce luncheon, tentatively set for Sept. 11, and a banquet on Sept. 13 to be staged by the Upland Post of the American Legion.

The Legion will honor the players and coaches with special awards at the banquet set for 3-6 p.m. at the Upland Legion Hall to which the public is invited.

The Upland nine lost only one game in the double-elimination championship series in Little Rock. They bowed 2-0 to Charlotte (N.C.) Aug. 29, but returned to defeat the same team 3-1 Monday night for the title.

Upland right-hander Rollie Fingers hurled a two-hitter in the final performance over Charlotte. It was Fingers second tournament win over the North Carolina team.

Fingers also was named the tournament's outstanding player and won the American Legion batting championship with a .450 average.

In the final game, Upland took a 1-0 lead in the third inning on a triple by Fred Wilding and a single by Dave Shoji. Charlotte tied up the game in the fourth on a walk, a fielder's choice, a single, a hit batsman and a sacrifice fly.

Upland put the game on ice with two runs in the sixth inning on a double by Ed Holland, a single by Mike Balboni and a double by Dean Harmon.

Architectural Commission Plan Gets Cool Reception

A considerable delay in establishing an Architectural Commission for the City of Upland is predicted.

Planning Commissioners at the Aug. 27 meeting decided to defer action for further study after hearing persons in the audience and a report from Planning Consultant Lyle Stewart.

The plan for an Architectural Commission was originated by the City Council and referred to the Planners.

Stewart's report to the Planning Commision stated:

"I have only had one day in which to review the proposed text amendment with respect to including with the Ordinances a section regulating architectural review and while, in my opinion, it appears to be a well-worked-out document, I would respectfully request the opportunity to review it in context with other communities' ordinances which are proposed to accomplish the same end as is proposed here.

"We have had some considerable experience with communities that have adopted control of architecture, and can truthfully state that we have not been impressed with the actual control which results.

"We, in our office, are in the process of making a complete review of this subject for two other communities—Beverly Hills and Santa Barbara. Within three months, we should have this analysis done. It will be based on a review of many ordinances and personal discussions with a number of professional people who are involved with the administration of such an ordinance.

"If the Commission feels that delaying the recommendation of the amendment would be advisable until after our review is completed, I would be most happy to provide them with the information that we develop. Or perhaps another approach would be to adopt the ordinances as prepared and should findings made by our office as a result of the study mentioned above show that other provisions would be successful, the ordinances could then be amended.

During the hearing before the Planning Commission on the text amendment which would establish the Architectural Commission, Planner Will Mason said he believed the amendment was "too complicated without investigation and difficult to enforce."

City Attorney Don Maroney explained that the intention was to have conformity of building in the city and to keep neighborhood values up. Architectural reviews in Upland are now made only for C-4 zones. The new ordinance would cover residential and industrial as well.

Ed Novell, Upland Realtor, said that the city now has side lot controls, front lot controls, and now want architectural controls.

"Why not have the city do the subdividing of lots, too," he said. "An Architectural Commission will scare every person out of town."

Upland Realtor Ralph Miller, who said he may be the only Democrat in the room, argued against the proposed Commission.

"We're losing enough of our freedoms now," he said, "and this is one area (architecture) where a man should be able to make a mistake if he wants to. It takes 30 days to six weeks now to get plans approved."

John Ward of Downing and Ward Construction Co. of Upland told the Planning Comission that it is questionable whether five persons can agree on what is good architecture.

"How are you going to enforce it?" Ward asked. "An ordinance of this kind needs some real thought and should not be crammed through. Just because one city does it, does not mean necessarily that Upland should follow."

Planning Commission Chairman Dan Maher said he hated to see bureaucracy spread further, but 'it's a question of control on those who don't do a good job for the city."

Commissioner Earl Hawthorne asked: "Are we attempting to stamp out development?"

Apparently somewhat cool to the proposal, Commissioners agreed to defer action until the November meeting.

Council Clobbers Clock

The Upland City Council Tuesday night labored wearily through nine of the more than 30 items on the agenda and adjourned just prior to 2 a.m. until 7:30 p.m. Friday.

General Plan amendments covering all four quadrants of the city took up the bulk of the meeting with the chambers packed to a standing room crowd.

Planning Consultant Lyle Stewart was the featured speaker of the evening and he carefully guided the Council to the decision making in an effort to up-date the General Plan.

Several areas, particularly in the northwest quadrant, were changed on the General Plan to accommodate the new as Garden-Type apartments.

The battle over the area east of Cable Airport continued with verbal blasts from both Dewey and Roger Cable as the General Plan was amended.

The only lively spot of the evening was the initial item of a resolution commending the Upland Legion baseball team for winning the National Championship.

Chamber Tables New Resolution For Industry

A resolution introduced at the Chamber of Commerce Board of Directors meeting Tuesday morning caused some apprehension among the bare quorum and others in attendance.

The suggested resolution, intended as a policy of encouragement to locate industry within Upland, was tabled for further study and some change of wording.

Director Richard Garner suggested that the resolution "may step on the Council toes by arguing for something they've been working on."

Councilman Ronald Rossitter, present at the Chamber meeting, said the resolution as drafted implies lack of cooperation. He suggested gathering case histories of industries which do or do not locate here and gain from the experience.

William H. Seineke, Community Relations Manager for Kaiser Steel, was a visitor to the meeting. He offered that a portion of the resolution "may raise the hackles of the City Council."

He pointed out that such a resolution should merely "point up" the availability of industrial property.

Rossitter suggested the resolution be tabled until the next meeting.

"I would like to confer with Councilman Jim Christensen about it and perhaps it can be reworded," he said.

Chamber Manager Floyd Taylor, who chaired the meeting in the absence of President Dwight Bert, said he would like to see the city establish its own Industrial Park.

"I don't know if we'd go so far as asking a reduction in taxes," he said, "but it's a possibility."

Director Dewey Cable stated that he saw nothing wrong with the resolution.

It's just a notice that we're going to work harder to secure industry," he said.

The full text of the tabled resolution follows:

No Trash Pick Up In City Labor Day

The City of Upland Sanitation Dept. has announced that no commercial nor residential trash will be picked up on Labor Day, Monday, Sept. 7.

All regular Monday pick-ups will be handled on Tuesday, Sept. 8.

Third Graders On Extended Day

A reminder was issued this week by Upland School District Superintendent Harold W. Cook that all third grade students will be on an extended schedule for the coming year.

The school day for the third grade has been extended 30 minutes and will end at 2:30 p.m. instead of the previous 2 p.m.

"We believe the third graders are old enough to cope with the extended day," Cook said, "and the extra time will help in teaching the subjects of our expanded curriculum."

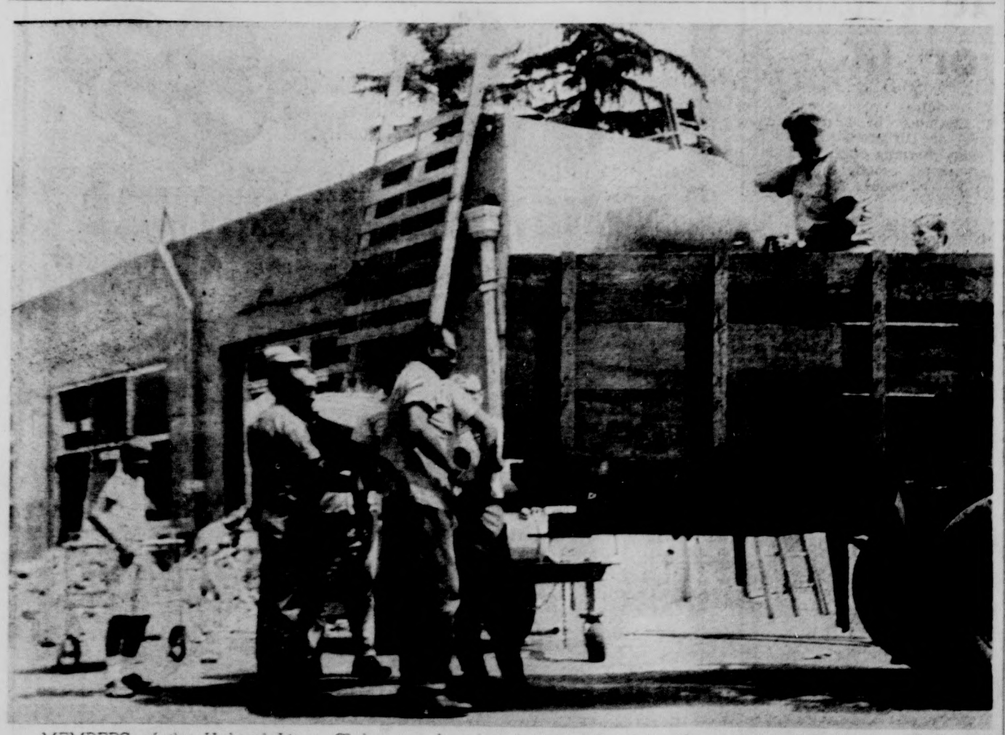

Registration Drive Slated

The local League of Women Voters will again sponsor a voter registration drive on Friday and Saturday in Upland with the aid of official registrars.

Under the theme "Your Vote Makes a Difference," citizens may register at the corner of 9th St. and 2nd Ave. from 3-6 p.m. on Friday, Sept. 4 and from 9 a.m. to noon on Saturday, Sept. 5.

According to reports from the League, the registration held last weekend accounted for 95 new registrations.

Deadline for registering for the November General Election is Sept. 10.

MEMBERS of the Upland Lions Club were busy Saturday transferring donated equipment from San Antonio Community Hospital to Santa Ana for storage until later this fall when it will be trucked to Encinada, Mexico, for the club's annual visitation. Many pieces of valuable medical and surgical equipment have been donated to the Lions by the hospital for the unfortunate people in Mexico. Each year the Lions' Clubs of the District travel to the Mexican village with much-needed gifts of equipment and supplies. "This year will be an exceptionally great visit," commented Lion President Archie Cruzen, "with all this fine equipment from San Antonio Hospital."

Upland Storm Drain Gets Nod

(CNS — The contract for construction of a storm drain at 15th St., Upland, was awarded to Arch Construction Co., Riverside, at the Aug. 31 session of the County Board of Supervisors.

W. A. Sidler, flood control engineer, told the Board that the winning bid was $31,372, compared with a high bid of almost $40,000. He reported that the work to be done calls for installation of about 700 lineal feet of 60-inch pipe and about 85 feet of 36-inch pipe.

Supervisors also approved an agreement between the county and the City of Upland for construction of the drain within city territory. Sidler said the agreement had been worked out between the county counsel's office and city officials.

Chamber Tables Resolution To Halt Hotel Tax Law

A resolution submitted to the Upland Chamber of Commerce Board of Directors Tuesday morning by immediate past president Ted Lyman received few comments and was tabled for further study.

Lyman, manager of the Uplander Motor Hotel, asked the Board to approve the resolution recommending that the City Council rescind a transient occupancy tax ordinance which is to be effective Oct. 1.

Lyman told the Chamber Board that there had been no prior notice of intention to enact the ordinance and since surrounding communities had not adopted a similar ordinance, the Uplander was at a disadvanage in a competitive market.

Directors agreed that both sides of the subject ordinance should be considered and tabled further consideration until the October meeting.

The full text of the suggested resolution follows:

"Whereas the City of Upland has heretofore enacted a transient occupancy tax to become effective October 1, 1964;

"And whereas the imposition of the tax and its significant effect relates to only one commercial enterprise in this City of Upland, namely the Uplander Motor Hotel;

"And whereas the Hotel business is an extremely competitive enterprise with the primary source of occupants being those reservations made by budgeted business enterprises;

"And whereas neighboring communities to the City of Upland have failed and refused to enact similar taxes for the reason that the imposition of such tax amounts to a discriminatory tax upon a single type of commercial enterprise rather than an equal tax levied upon all business;

"And whereas the Uplander Motor Hotel is an active and participating member of the Chamber of Commerce and generates payroll, sales taxes, and other monies into the economy of this area in multiple tens of thousands of dollars;

"Now therefore be it resolved that the Upland Chamber of Commerce does hereby respectfully recommend to the City Council of the City of Upland a reconsideration of the imposition of the transient occupancy tax and recommends that this tax be rescinded.

SENATOR Pierre Salinger's whistle-stop at Upland's Santa Fe station last Saturday morning was not greeted completely by Salinger supporters. Along with hundreds of Salinger signs were those of an opposing nature as seen above. The big sign asked people to "Vote for Murphy" and read: "California, here he comes, send him back where he started from." The Senator's train stopped at Upland for 10-minutes and he addressed the crowd from the rear platform.

Resolution Tabled --

WITHIN SAID CITY.

WHEREAS, there is in the City of Upland, California much undeveloped land which could reasonably be utilized for the establishment of industrial sites, and

WHEREAS, more established industry would be of great benefit to the City of Upland and its citizens therein by providing a broader tax base and job opportunities, and

WHEREAS, it is recognized that a sincere and concerted effort must be made by members of the Chamber of Commerce, Administrators of the City of Upland, and all concerned to attract and encourage industry to locate within our City, and

WHEREAS, specific guidelines and policies must be established to designate authority and responsibility for this purpose so that such a harmonious and concerted effort can be effected.

NOW, THEREFORE, the Board of Directors of the Upland Chamber of Commerce does hereby resolve as follows:

1. That the City Council of the City of Upland be urged to adopt a resolution establishing a policy of encouragement to industry to locate within the City, wherein all City Administrators will make every reasonable effort consistent with good planning to make City Planning and Policy meet the needs of industry for the full utilization of all City property.

2. That the City Council of the City of Upland be urged to establish specific guidelines and mechanics of responsibility for all City Administrators to work harmoniously with Chamber of Commerce representatives, industrial prospects and other interested persons in an effort to work out any problems or obstacles facing any specific industrial prospect, and that records be kept and information disseminated as to the results of all industrial inquiries and site location efforts.

Upland College Registration For Fall Trimester Slated

Registration for the fall semester at Upland College is scheduled for returning students on Friday, Sept. 11, in the "U" Building.

Students with last names beginning with letter A through J register in the forenoon, 8:15-11:30, and those with letters through Z from 1:15 to 4:30 p.m.

New students report to campus on the morning of Thursday, Sept. 10, for orientation and entrance testing which will continue on Friday.

Registration for all new students will take place in the library on Saturday forenoon, Sept. 12, 8-12 a.m.

This fall, Upland College begins the trimester calendar, with the fall term beginning on Sept. 10 and ending on Dec. 19. The winter term begins on Jan. 4 and ends with Commencement ceremonies on April 10. The spring term begins on April 19 and closes on July 31.

Under this calendar, entering freshmen complete their Bachelor of Arts degrees in nine terms or trimesters covering a three-year period.

Upland students also inaugurate another new feature this fall. Each student will register for a three-course schedule, wherein the student carries only three courses of block study per term, thereby eliminating the fragmentation of learning which occurs when a student registeres for six to eight separate courses.

Greater depth of study, less competition and distraction from other courses, and more flexible time scheduling results from this program. Each course at the accredited liberal arts college has been redesigned and covers approximately five semester units.

The Upland graduate will include 27 of such courses in the entire degree program. Courses rather than units become the factor in this distinctive program.

Although Upland College was recognized mainly as a Bible college for many years, the curriculum was revamped and broadened in 1940 to a typical Christian liberal arts pattern and the first Bachelor of Arts degrees were granted.

The 1964-65 catalogue just off the press lists the following areas of concentration: English, Music, History and Government, Sociology, Biology, Mathematics, and Bible-Religion. Other instructional areas include Foreign Languages (French, German, Spanish), Philosophy, Art, Psychology, Economics and Business Administration, Chemistry, Physics, Physical Education, and Elementary Teacher Education.

Study at Upland College is open to Southern California residents, either as special students, or as regular students carrying courses for the bachelor's degree. Registration is still open for the fall trimester.

Church Height Study By FAA

A proposal affecting utilization of airspace east of Cable Airport is being considered by the Federal Aviation Agency.

The proposed structure being studied is the new Foothill Baptist Church to be built at 1330 W. 15th St., Upland. The church plans to build a 25-foot building with a spire extending 18 feet above the roof ridge, or 43 feet above the ground.

The FAA requests that the public be so informed and be afforded an opportunity to submit comments.

Persons interested in making comments on the proposed height of the building, located 3,630 feet east of the Cable Airport primary runway, should address them to the Chief, Airspace Utilization Branch, P.O. Box 90007, Airport Station, Los Angeles, 90009.

For any comments to be considered they must be received by Sept. 14.

The First Mennonite Church will hold a rummage sale on Thursday, Friday and Saturday, Sept. 10, 11 and 12 at 161 N. 2nd Ave., Upland. Information may be obtained by calling Mrs. Hadley at YU 2-4304.

County Tax Rate Set At $1.912

(CNS) — A county tax rate of $1.912 per $100 of assessed valuation, compared with $1.835 last year, was approved Monday Aug. 31 by the County Board of Supervisors.

The new library rate will be .092 cents, compared with .094 cents last year.

Jocelyn M. Cox, county auditor-controller, presented the proposed tax rates for the 500 agencies, from cities to school districts, and Supervisors were quick to point out they had no responsibilities for most of the rates being levied.

The districts, many self-governing, say what they need, and the auditor says what rate is required to meet the budget, and Supervisors just obey state law in setting the required rate, Board members stressed. They asked Robert A. Covington, county administrative officer, to release a statement explaining that Supervisors are not to blame for the tax levies.

Premiums totaling $13,793 are offered in the livestock department of the fair, which is limited to entries by Future Farmer and 4-H Members.

OPARC Will Register Students on Sept. 11

Registration for the Oparc Day School for Retarded Children will be held Sept. 11, from 9 a.m. to 12 noon at the Day School, 217 W. California St., Ontario in the Temple Baptist Church Sunday School Annex.

Parents are asked to register their children regardless of whether or not they have attended the school before this session.

This is the 14th year of Day School for the retarded child by the Ontario Pomona Association for Retarded Children, an agency of the West End United Fund and the United Way, Inc.

Although there are more than 5½ million Americans who are retarded to some extent, there are all too few facilities in which they may be trained to achieve their maximum potential. OPARC continues to serve the child who needs an extra assist in getting started or just in taking part in school.

The retarded child begins his schooling by learning to get along with others; to accept people other than family; to become aware of the world around him and his relationship to it. Everything is play-with-a-purpose. He is trained to accept his responsibilities however simple.

Individual differences are recognized and special effort is made to utilize his capabilities and to develop his maximum self-reliance so that he may have a happier and more rewarding life as self-respecting citizen, and add to the strength of the community.

Mrs. M. C. Williams of Montclair and principal of OPARC for seven years, will have on her staff of teachers Mrs. Harry Swanlund of Riverside who returns after a year's absence to start her third year at OPARC, now as Mrs. Williams assistant in the primary class (ages 8-12); Mrs. Oscar Morton of Ontario again head teacher of the kindergarten class (ages 4-8), will be assisted for the second year by Mrs. Thomas Sims of Upland; Mrs. Alvin Wilwant of Ontario, head teacher of the intermediate class (ages 12-18), with her assistant for a second year, Mrs. Glenn Christoph, nee Miss Donna Ellison of Ontario.

More social-growth activities are planned for the retarded child at OPARC this year. Outings such as the fire hall, bakery, post office, park, etc. which are taken for granted by the average school child, are parties for the retarded child . . . but are excellent learn-by-doing experiences.

For the young adults at the Habilitation Center, 160 N. Garey, Pomona, OPARC's training center for young adults age 16 and over, there will be dancing, bowling, Scouting, and dining out.

The Habilitation Center will assist with the vocational training program for a selected group of young adults from the Los Angeles County Schools in the Pomona area as a pilot project this fall.

County Grand Jury Spends Illegally

(CNS) — The County Grand Jury illegally ran up a bill of $1,485 in having the books of a self-governing special district audited, according to the county counsel's office.

Stanford D. Herlick, county counsel, has informed Jocelyn M. Cox, county auditor-controller, that she cannot pay the bill for the auditing job, reportedly done in an investigation of the San Bernardino Valley Municipal Water District.

Herlick recommended that the funds available to the grand jury be "encumbered" to the amount of $1,485, in the event the accounting firm sues to be paid.

Otherwise, the accountants can forget the bill, or the grand jurors can chip in to meet the amount due.

Fire Departments Formalize Mutual Aid Agreements

Fire Departments in Montclair, Upland, Chino, Claremont, Pomona and Ontario have formalized previously informal mutual aid agreements.

Resolutions have been adopted by city councils or Boards of all governmental agencies involved making formal the mutual aid arrangements that have been carried out over a number of years.

Resolutions adopted by governing bodies spell out what each fire department will send to help another when it needs more men and equipment than it has to fight a fire.

Monte Vista County Fire District (Montclair) and Chino City-Rural Fire District have agreed to send whatever equipment the chiefs of those two departments feel they can afford to send to a neighboring city or district, keeing in mind their own needs at the time.

Resolutions adopted by the other four cities spell out more specifically what the maximum "loan" equipment will be.

Upland set a maximum of one fire company (one truck and men to operate it).

Claremont set the same limit on equipment and men that can be sent to a neighboring jurisdiction.

Ontario's maximum "loan" will be two companies, and Pomona set a limit of two engine and one truck company. Ontario did not specify whether the two companies would include only engines or truck companies depending on the need of the other department and what the city has available at any given time.

Because the mutual aid agreements are now formal by resolutions of governing bodies, the departments involved will get some credit from the Pacific Rating Bureau (Underwriters) for the additional fire fighting equipment and personnel the mutual aid agreements make available to them.

Monte Vista, Upland, Claremont and Ontario previously worked out a mutual agreement on coverage of fires reported on San Bernardino Freeway because of the center divider fence.

That fence makes it time consuming for the departments to answer calls in their own territory because they can not cross over the center divider.

Other departments can answer calls in certain areas, one on each side of the freeway, making certain one is on the side where the emergency exists in the shortest possible time.

Commercial-Professional Building Slated Soon For Euclid-Foothill Blvd.

If present plans materialize, a new Commercial-Professional building will make its appearance on the southwest corner of Foothill Blvd. and Euclid Ave. in Upland.

The Upland Planning Commission Thursday night, Aug. 27, approved a Conditional Use Permit for 3.7 acres on the corner of the C-P use.

Citizens National Co. of Riverside and Nate Margolin of Beverly Hills had requested a zone change from the present R-3 (multiple residential) to the Commercial - Professional zone. Planners, however, granted the CUP rather than the zone change in order to assure the development.

Upland Realtor Ralph Miller, speaking for the property owners, told the Commission that the development will make a beautiful corner.

"We finally have a development set for this corner which will be a fine development," Miller said. "The C-P zone will allow for a Security First National Bank and a professional building which is a fine compromise to make everyone happy."

Robert Williamson, vice president of Security First National Bank, told the Planners that his organization "has a distinct interest in Upland as a member of the community."

The bank, he said, would control the development on the corner.

Planning Commission Chairman Daniel Maher suggested the CUP rather than the zone change. The permit was granted for a two-year period with several stipulations including:

The dedication of a 57-foot service road along the Foothill Blvd. frontage, sufficient parking area with lighting, a minimum building setback to correspond with the development on the north side of Foothill, a review of the precise plan, and an architectural review of the development.

* * *

The Planning Commission also denied a zone change request by Peter J. Rosi of Claremont from R-1-D to R-3 on 4.1 acres on the south side of Arrow Hwy., 650 feet west of Benson Ave.

Personal protests to the zone change were registered by T. C. Manchester and John Brubaker, residents of the area. Manchester also presented two letters of protests from other Arrow Hwy. residents.

In a written statement, Planning Consultant Lyle Stewart recommended against the zone change saying the subject property was surrounded by "reasonable fine" residences.

"They might be 'reasonable fine' residences," Rosi said, "but they are not typical of Upland. We plan to build apartments in the $80-$90 a month class and we believe they fit in the area. The zoning to the south in Montclair is M-1, and there are chicken ranches in the vicinity."

"You're making a good case against any residential zoning of the area," Chairman Maher said.

Planner Will Mason moved for denial of the request for rezoning, but the motion died for want of a second.

Commissioner Earl Hawthorne then moved for approval, but his motion was overruled by a motion from Commissioner Ray Anderson to defer action until the Consultant helped to decide.

Rosi then asked the Commission to render a "no decision" and let the Council decide.

Mason again quickly moved for denial and the Commission obliged Rosi by voting down the request.

* * *

In other action, the Commission granted a Conditional Use Permit to St. Joseph's Church on a half acre on the east side of 5th Ave. immediately south of the church property for additional parking and recreation area.

—granted a CUP to Mabel Nunez to increase the capacity of her rest home from three to six patients at 536 N. 5th Ave.

—approved a conditional use pprmit for Donald Long and Robert Slette for a sales and rental lot for campers and pick-up trucks on one acre at the southwest corner of Mountain Ave. and 7th St.

—deferred action to set up an architectural commission until studied further.

Fence Approved By Supervisors

(CNS)—Permission to erect a six-foot chain link fence in the flood control right of way in Red Hill Basin No. 1, Cucamonga, was granted to Coral Investment at the Aug. 31 session of the County Board of Supervisors.

Supervisor Daniel D. Mikesell, who represents the area, asked Martin A. Nicholas, county engineer, whether the fence would affect efficiency of the basin.

Nicholas replied that it was merely to separate subdivision land from the basin and that the county's permission was required because the fence would be on the edge of the flood control district's fee-owned land.

There was no opposition to allowing the fence to be erected.

City Eyes Design Of Gas Stations

The exterior design of several service stations planned for building in Upland were considered by the city's temporary architectural committee on Friday, Aug. 28.

The committee comprises Councilmen James L. Christensen, Ronald Rossitter, City Manager Elwin Alder and Planning Commission Secretary Rod Anderson.

Rossitter told representatives of three major oil firms, Standard Oil, Texaco and Signal Oil Co., that the meeting was called to consider the proposed plans for the stations.

"We are not concerned with telling you how to build gas stations," Rossitter said, "but it is our duty to see that buildings in Upland are proper for the surroundings."

Stanley Tract of Standard Oil told the committee that each station should be considered separately on individual merits.

"It seems foolish," he said, "to put an expensive station in a commercial area which will draw its traffic mainly from the freeway."

Tract was referring to a Standard Station slated for the corner of 7th St. and Mountain Ave.

Tom Dunston of Texaco said his products were distributed in the 50 states and the company had developed a uniform design to identify the product. A Texaco station will be constructed at Foothill Blvd. and San Antonio Ave.

Hunter Penn, developer of the Foothill-San Antonio center, told the committee he had been negotiating for the station for about a year.

"It will be several months more if we have to change the architecture," he said. "The city didn't have this committee when we started and I don't see how you can cut off our plans overnight."

Christensen said that Penn raised a relative point and asked if the stations could be "dressed up" with landscaping, brick walls or special trim so that they were not just "rubber stamp" stations.

It was finally determined that plans for the individual stations be altered with the use of stone fronts or special landscaping and presented again for final approval.

Minimum-sized Lot Zoning Approved For Alta Loma

(CNS) — Zoning for single family dwellings with minimum-sized lots (7,200 sq. ft.) for an Alta Loma area was approved Thursday, Aug. 27, by the County Planning Commission.

The property involved lies south of 19th St., on the west side of Carnelian St. It contains about 10 acres. -

Garnett Jones, of the county planning staff, told commissioners that in 1963 they had approved a subdivision development map for the land, with lots of 7,200 sq. ft. for single family dwellings, but that no change of zone to fit the subdivision pattern had ever been approved.

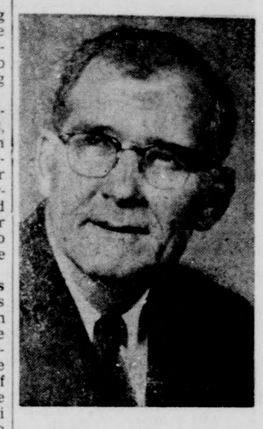

The change of zone will be from use for agriculture, with an acre for a building site. The commission itself had called the hearing on the rezoning. The new zone does not conflict with the area master plan.

In another action affecting Alta Loma community, the commission ordered the calling of a public hearing to change back some zoning granted a year earlier.

Jones reminded the commission that in August, 1963, it had approved a change from zoning for single family dwellings to that for apartments for 10 acres at the northeast corner of Haven and Highland Avenues, providing the owner in a year submit a plan to show how the land would be developed.

The Board of Supervisors agreed to this condition, Jones said. But no development plan has been submitted, so the change of zone back to its former status is required, he continued. The developer of the land, to whom the change of zone was granted, was Eli H. Leslie, Jones stated. "No word has been received from the applicant in the year," he added.

The commission ordered that a hearing date be set. Members said they would like to hear if Leslie has a good excuse for his lack of action.

A BIG West Texas farm boy who later went to Rice Institute, and played football and who now has just recently resigned his position as Chamber of Commerce manager from Midland, Texas, Delbert Downing will be the guest of members of the Metropolitan Dinner club, the evening of Monday, Sept. 14, at the Royal Tahitian. He will speak here on the subject of "Cornbread . . . and the Scheme of Things", a message which is said to have "a little of Lincoln, some of Will Rogers, lots of humor and plenty of common sense."

August Weather Ideal For Crop Development

(Editor's Note: The following Crop Condition Report was issued Aug. 31 by the San Bernardino County Department of Agriculture.)

The weather was mostly fair through out the county during the month. Temperatures departed a few degrees from normal on the plus side while rainfall was non-existent except for scattered showers in the mountain and desert areas.

Thus ideal conditions prevailed for the development and harvest of all crops.

CITRUS

Navels, 11,753 bearing acres. The new crop of navel oranges is making good growth. In some groves the young fruit is a little below normal in size for this time of year. Only slight splitting has been noted to date. Fruit set in the west end districts is reported to be the finest in recent years.

In view of these conditions our estimate for this new crop is 271 boxes per acre for the county.

Valencias, 6,070 bearing acres. The old crop Valencia orange harvest continues in all districts with over 75% of the fruit harvested to date. Small sizes and granulation in the larger sizes pose problems to shippers. Demand is active with good prices for large size fruit.

The estimate of this crop remains unchanged from the 280 field boxes per acre for the county.

The new crop of Valencias shows good growth during the month. Our over-all estimate of this crop is somewhat difficult to ascertain at this time but a preliminary estimate is 270 field boxes per acre for the county with an adjustment in the figure probable next month.

Lemons, 4,331 bearing acres. Harvest of local lemons terminated during the month with one of the finest crops in recent years. Shipments have tended to reduce fruit in storage.

Under the influence of the warm weather of August the new crop has made excellent growth with the greater portion under walnut size. This new crop is estimated to be around 340 field boxes per acre, with possible adjustments later in the season.

Uplander Hotel Suffers Robbery

The Uplander Motor Hotel was robbed of an undetermined amount of cash about 5 a.m. Friday and the tall man who held a small black pistol escaped into the dawn.

The night clerk of the hotel, John P. Barrett, told Upland police officers that the man entered and asked for a room.

When he was told "no," the man took a gun from his belt and ordered Barrett to hand over the bills from the cash register.

He told Barrett to get into the back room and not come out. Barrett said he turned and saw the man run out the front door and toward the tuft Shirt Restaurant.

"I didn't see a car," Barrett told officers.

Cucamonga Cadet In USAF Training

Cadet Henry H. Barker is participating in the U. S. Air Force Reserve Officer Training Corps (AFROTC) summer encampment at Hamilton AFB, Calif.

Cadet Barker, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert P. Layman of 7831 Klusman Ave., Cucamonga, is observing and taking an active part in flying and support phases of operations at the Air Defense Command base during the month-long encampment.

A member of the AFROTC unit at the University of Georgia in Athens, he will be eligible for a commission as an Air Force second lieutenant upon completion of AFROTC training and graduation from college.

Wine Producing Procedures To Highlight Grape Festival

Step by step procedures in producing fine wines, vinegars and brandies which have become known internationally will be shown the thousands of visitors expected to attend the annual Cucamonga Wine and Grape Festival Sept. 5, 6 and 7 in Cucamonga, birthplace of California's wine industry.

Ten wineries in Guasti, Ontario, Etiwanda, Fontana and Cucamonga will hold "open house" during the three day festival and guide tours through the wineries with interesting explanation of procedures followed will be offered.

The ten wineries are: the three Brookside Wineries in Guasti, Ontario and Cucamonga; Joe Cangemi and Sons, 9276 E. Fourth St., Ontario; Cucamonga Winery on Rochester Ave. in Cucamonga; J. Filippi Vintage Company in Mira Loma; Regina Grape Products, 12467 Base Line, Etiwanda; Thomas Vineyards, Foothill and Vineyard, Cucamonga; Fontana Winery, 18475 Arrow Hwy., Fontana; Cherpin Winery, 15567 Valley Blvd., Fontana.

John Ellena, president of the Cucamonga Wine Growers and Vintners Association, sponsors of the annual festival, urged large groups of visitors to take advantage of the "open house" invitation and visit all of the wineries if possible.

"Bus loads of senior citizens are especially welcome at all of these wineries," Ellena said. "Wine grapes grown in the Cucamonga Valley are rated some of the finest in the world and it is a pleasure for us to show visitors why Cucamonga wines rank foremost among the world's finest."

One of the interesting items on display will be an old-fashioned grape crusher compared to the most modern machinery available to produce wines and affiliated grape products. There are but few of the old-time grape crushers and these have become high priced antiques.

FORMER CAPTAIN Elizabeth J. Hamilton, Army Medical Specialist Corps, Letterman General Hospital, San Francisco, is shown (at right) receiving her gold Major's leaves from Major General Jack W. She is a 1945 graduate of Chaffey Union High School, and attended the University of California at Berkeley, graduating in 1949. She then taught high school until accepting a commission in the Army Medical Specialist Corps in 1954. The Major is the daughter of Mrs. Elizabeth M. Hamilton, 2416 N. Fifth Ave., Upland, Calif.

Students will further their preparation for church school and Sunday school work, but credit toward the Evangelical Teacher Training Certificate cannot be assured. We regret the misinformation submitted in the previous news release.

Upland Lion Of The Week

(Editor's Note: The following is another in a series of biographies featuring members of the Upland Lions Club. The material is taken from the Lions Weekly bulletin, "The Tail Twister" and is in recognition of the club's 40th year.)

Harold W. Cook, Past-president, present Chairman of the Membership Committee, was born in northeast Iowa on the farm of his father, William L. Cook on Dec. 17, 1900. William Cook brought his young family, three daughters and two sons, to Ontario in 1907 where he became a citrus grower.

Harold attended Ontario elementary and secondary schools, graduating in 1919 from Chaffey High School, attending the University of Southern California where he received a B.S. degree, and his Masters Degree from Claremont Graduate School.

Entering as a beginning teacher of history in 1925 at Chaffey High School, Harold taught at Chaffey until 1928 when he accepted a teaching-principalship at Upland Junior High School. (That was the year the Junior High enrollment was 187 students with a faculty of seven teachers). July, 1931 he became Principal-superintendent for the Upland Elementary District, a position he held until 1947 when he became full-time Superintendent.

School friends married Oct. 23, 1925 in Long Beach when Bessie Friend married Harold Cook. They have lived in Upland all of their married life. Their son Harold Jr. married the former Rosemary Edelman, and has four children. Eleanor Cook is now Mrs. Robert Pollock of Anaheim and mother of two children.

Harold joined Upland Lions in 1928, becoming Club President in 1931. Outstanding Club experience was when he attended the Lions International Convention in Toronto the year he was local President. Lions had a special train from California, holding a California Night at the Convention where California oranges were given all Convention delegates.

Harold is an active member of Upland Methodist Church, President of the Upland Library Board, a member of Upland's Park and Recreation Commission, a Phi Delta Kappa, a member of the Los Angeles City Trojans Club, and holds membership in local, state and national educational organizations.

The vacationing Cooks have just returned from thirteen days spent in Hawaii. Harold is looking forward to attending all the home games of the Trojan football team this fall.

Pistol Packin' Sal Slated for Jaggard

A special Ontario Recreation Department program will be staged at Jaggard Bowl in De Anza Park, Ontario this coming Wednesday Sept. 1, at 8 p.m.

It will be the production of "Pistol Packin' Sal," a Hillbilly Musical Comedy in one act prepared as a project by the Drama-Choral Workshop Class of the Recreation Department which as been under the direction of Rose and Harve Edwards.

Written by Eskel Crawford with music and lyrics by Bud Tomkins, "Pistol Packin' Sal" is the story of the daughter of Sheriff Skinner who is in the "horspital" and who has "appinted" her "deppity" during his absence. A bus hold-up and a romance provide the situation for a good clean story with hilarious comedy and catchy songs.

Included in the cast are: Dayl Wells, Regina Scanlon, Errol Browne, Stephen Meyer, Earl Schroer, Susan Bronson, Marilyn O'Gella, Lina Adams, Patti Adams, Priscilla Davis, Rosemarie Macioci, Tim Ades, Donna Finfrock. Douglas McKern of Claremont will be the accompanist.

Prefeaturing the musical an appearance of Hollis Moore's Merrymakers, a Montclair dance band will play.

The admission - free, park program, begins at 8 p.m.

To Discuss Employment Opportunity

An employment and educational opportunities workshop will be held for the general public 7:30 p.m., on Friday, Sept. 4, at the De Anza Jr. High School, 1450 S. Sultana Ave. in Ontario.

A project of the West End Council of Community Services, the workshop is designed to acquaint people of the sources of training and employment available in the West End area, how to apply for these opportunities, where to inquire, and what agencies and individuals are involved.

The workshop will also include a period for discussion and the availability of aptitude testing. The workshop is a community project which will aid the unemployed, those who wish to up grade their abilities, and those who wish to be informed on training and job opportunities.

Included on the panel are: Mr. John Calderas, Director of the California State Employment Office; Mr. Lynn Hollist, Dean, Evening School of Chaffey Jr. College; Mr. Berger Nielsen, Director of the Association of Commerce and Industry; Mr. J. C. Stamm, Training Coordinator of Kaiser Steel and Mr. William Weigand of the International Association of Machinists.

The panel will be moderated by Bill Nicholas, Executive Director of the San Bernardino County Council of Community services.

The workshop is open to the general public. Individuals who are unemployed and are intersted in learning about educational and related job opportunities are especially invited to attend the workshop.

Girl Scouts End Summer Activities

"Fun, learning, adventure—52 weeks a year," has a great deal of meaning when you're a Scout in the Girl Scout Council of East San Gabriel Valley," commented Mrs. John Vail, Program Committee Chairman on Aug. 28.

She added, "even in the good old summertime, the girls have been everywhere doing many things. 1,750 girls have been doing the traditional 'summertime thing' of having a wonderful time in the out-of-doors."

Approximately 1,000 mascots and girls attended one of the nine sessions of Day Camp. Day Camping means many things in Girl Scouting. To a Brownie (ages 7-8) it might well mean her first cook-out—featuring S'mores or campers stew, while to a Junior Scout (ages 9-11) it may be her first encounter with a tent and other skills that were learned. More than 230 girls participated in the Short-Term Resident camps that were held at Big Dalton in the Glendora Mountain area or at El Potrero, Council camping site in the mountains below Elsinore. 450 Girl Scouts have been exploring Camp Conifer, the Council-established campsite located near Running Springs in the San Bernardino mountains.

Lake Cachuma Recreation area, located in Santa Barbara County, was the scene of the Cadette Scout camp with 48 girls on hand.

Camping has really been specialized for 12 Senior Scouts from our Council, because the Trailblazer Scouts headed for a mountain pack trip in the High Sierra and have just returned from a glorious 10 days of fishing, hiking and enjoying the pleasures of making new friends.

Mrs. Vail explained further "that many other Senior Girl Scouts in the Council have been busy carrying out their Service Aide projects — serving as Hospital Aides, helping make a summer of fun for younger children as Program Aides, Office Aides, working as Museum Aides, etc. As you can see, through our varied program of summer activities, Girl Scouting provides fun, learning and adventure," she concluded.

County Library Branches Move 140,000 Books

More than 140,000 books and other materials circulated to library users in the Montclair, Cucamonga, Alta Loma, Mt. Baldy and Etiwanda Branches of the San Bernardino County Library from July 1, 1963 through June 30, 1964. This is an increase of more than 1 per cent from the year before.

During the year 15,000 books were received at these branches from County Library Headquarters.

More than a million and a half books circulated from the 38 branches and two bookmobiles which make up the San Bernardino County Library system, which on July 1, 1964 had 138,000 registered library users. This is an increase of 10,000 over the year before.

During the year library users asked librarians 150,000 reference questions.

Exchange-Sales To Highlight Realtor Program

More real estate transactions are being developed every day through the exchange-sales program according to Marino Riccardi, president of Upland-Ontario Board of Realtors, who announced plans of the board to co-sponsor a real estate exchange symposium in Pomona at the Elks Lodge on Friday, Sept. 11.

"Investments in this tax age must now be made with the complete understanding as to the investor's position with regard to this tax status. The new tax laws can affect both the large and small property owner, according to Riccardi.

"Local Realtors, investors, mortgage lending representatives, and other investment-wise individuals interested in building an estate will learn how to save tax dollars through real estate exchanges from lecturers recognized as authorities in the field of real estate exchanges," said Riccardi.

Coordinators for the conference program include: James M. McMichael of Pasadena, member of the International Traders' Club and Honorary President for Life of Certified Property Exchangers and Realtor J. W. Levine, Los Angeles Regional Director and member, Editorial Board of International Traders' Club with San Diego Realtor Frank Curry, President of the Swift Investment Co., Inc.

The Conference coordinators are co-authors of "Real Estate Exchanges and How to Make Them," published by the Institute For Business Planning, Inc.

"While the conference is sponsored by the local Board of Realtors," Riccardi said, "owners of apartments, homes, commercial property, as well as others interested in the real estate exchanging are invited to enroll through the local Board of Realtors at 425 N. Laurel, Ontario.

Each person attending the symposium will receive a copy of the book, "Hidden Gold and Pitfalls in the New Tax Law." This 120-page book is published by the Institute for Business Planning, Inc., New York.

William J. Casey, Chairman of the Board of Editors, is a member of the New York Bar. He has also written "Tax Shelter in Real Estate," "How to Buy and Sell Land" and "Real Estate Investments and How to Make Them."

Valley Survey Is Underway

An economic survey of all cities in the Valley was launched last week at a luncheon meeting of the Pomona-Ontario Valley Economic Development Council.

Since the Council has $800 already collected, $500 was earmarked for obtaining questionaires to be sent to all cities for basic information.

Robert Carlson, City Manager of San Dimas, was authorized to coordinate the return of the questionnaires within 30 days of delivery and get them returned to Gerry Findley whose research firm then would coordinate and present all information to the cities.

This fee probably would run about $5,500, it was noted but cities must authorize this expenditure.

Among those attending were Mayors Ken Ziebarth of Montclair, Ken Beyer of Claremont, Jack Melhorn of La Verne, and Mayor-pro-tem Zeke Cortez of Chino.

Other representatives included Carlson of San Dimas.

Upland, Ontario, Pomona, Walnut, and the Cucamonga, Alta Loma, Etiwanda areas were not represented at the meeting.

Montclair Councilman Harold Hayes is chairman of the group.

Cucamonga's Exciting Annual Wine, Grape Festival Here

Cucamonga's largest and most exciting annual event is approaching. The colorful Wine and Grape Festival is scheduled for the Labor Day Weekend of Sept. 5, 6 and 7.

Sponsored by the Cucamonga Growers and Vintners Association each year just prior to the annual grape harvest, it reveals to area citizens and everyone throughout Southern California the importance of the Wine and Grape industry to this locale.

It combines nostalgia with that of modern industry. Visitors can view the modern-day wine making techniques in the area wineries, some of which were founded long before most residents were born.

Although the wineries are old, the process is up-to-date. This local industry grows some 60 varieties of grapes on some 28,000 acres and produces about 70,000 gallons of wine annually. Indeed, and important industry.

Another touch of the modern is the opportunity for festival goers to fly over the area in a helicopter, the fascinating machine used for many spraying operations and grape vine drying.

All the grape varieties will, of course, be on display and the vineyardists will receive ribbons and prizes for their efforts during the year.

Reigning over the festivities will be the lovely Maid 'O The Vineyard who was selected from among several young ladies after we went to press. The winner will receive, among other prizes, a trip to Hawaii.

Visitors will have ample opportunity to sample the many fine wines produced by local wineries and may participate in the popular "What's My Wine" tasting contest will again be held each day during the festival. Blindfolded members of the audience will be asked to identify certain varieties of wine by taste and winners will receive delightful prizes.

Many exhibits, special booths operated by local service clubs and other organizations, and a carnival atmosphere will prevail.

For an exciting three days or perhaps just a visit of a few houds, we highly recommend your attendance at the Cucamonga Wine and Grape Festival. You'll find it easily on Foothill Blvd., east of Archibald Ave. near Ramona in Cucamonga.

See you there!

Cable Airport Offers Runways To Upland

In a great effort to preserve Cable Airport from further encroachment of "non-compatible" zoning, the operators of the airport on the edge of Upland have made a special offer to the City of Upland.

In a letter to the Upland City Council and the Planning Commission, airport owner Dewey Cable set down a six-point program hoping to assure continuance of the airport's operation.

Following is the full letter sent by Cable under the date of Aug. 27:

To: Upland City Council
Upland City Planning Commission

Gentlemen:

We wish to bring before you the sincere intention of the Cable family regarding Cable Airport. To ensure that the land will be preserved for use as an airport, we offer the following suggested steps:

1. Cable will deed to the City of Upland those runways and taxiways as shown on map.
2. The City of Upland will assume the responsibility of maintaining runways and lighting at its own expense.
3. The City of Upland will protect the airport from encroachment by compatible zoning such as M-1.
4. Cable will agree to sign an affidavit that this land will be used exclusively for the performance of services in connection with and as an airport for a period of thirty years.
5. At such time that runways can no longer be used in connection with and as an airport, ownership of the land will revert to Cable.
6. Land remaining in use as an airport be taxed as an airport and not for use or purposes other than an airport.

We are willing and shall be happy to sit at any time with the appointed committee to work out a satisfactory arrangement for the preservation of the airport.

Sincerely yours,
Dewey M. Cable

Nisbet Reports

By State Senator
Eugene Nisbet
San Bernardino County

The family is the basic unit of human society, but the breakdown of family units is increasing at such a pace that some drastic legal action may be necessary to slow down the divorce rate. Our California divorce rate is twice the national average, and in a couple of our more populous counties, it is three times that average.

The Assembly Committee on Judiciary, which not long ago held a two-day session to ponder solutions to the divorce problem, was told that the state cannot afford the "snowballing expense of family failure."

It was reported that of the 300,000 children being supported by California's aid to needy children program, 40 per cent come from homes broken by divorce, separation, or desertion, and another 40 per cent are born out of wedlock. Only 5 per cent of the total are being aided because of the death of the father.

A professor of family sociology told the committee that the highest divorce rate is in the group married between the ages of 15 to 19. He said the divorce rate is three to four times higher among those married in their teens than it is among those married in later years.

Teen-age marriages are the most fertile, he informed the group. In 1962, "child mothers" 12 to 18 years old bore 57,000 babies in California. This was approximately 14 per cent of the total live births in that year.

Yet the fact that divorce breaks up more families when the wife is between 20 and 25 than in any other five year period is evidence that young people are marrying too soon, before they are prepared to cope with marital responsibilities, he concluded.

A number of witnesses agreed that one of the handicaps to the study of divorce is the fact so little specific information is available from official records.

A study of 3,000 divorce, separation, and annulment proceedings filed during 1963 in San Francisco gave only the place of marriage, its duration, and the number of children. One of the few conclusions which could be drawn was that marriages performed in Reno appear to be bigger risks during the first year than those in San Francisco.

The connection between alcoholism and divorce was explored. Here, it seemed to be a case of which came first, the chicken or the egg. Does the unhappiness of the marriage drive the husband to drink, or does his drinking help break up the marriage?

It was recommended to the committee that mandatory pre-marital counseling be required for all young people who have to get court permission to marry, 18 for boys, 16 for girls.

Some committee members endorsed the suggestion that the interlocutory period before a divorce becomes final be eliminated. It was said that 90 per cent of all reconciliations take place before this period starts, so the enforced delay actually saves few marriages, if any.

Comments From the

SWIVEL CHAIR

by Glen Young

It was quite apparent to this writer last Saturday forenoon that the new Senator from California knows little about the State he supposedly represents.

Pierre Salinger's whistlestop in Upland was quite a joke. He spoke about LBJ, against Barry Goldwater, attempted to be humorous in a few words about George Murphy, but NOT ONE WORD about what he can or would do for California. It's obvious that he's a member of the D. C. Democratic clique and will probably do more for Virginia during his short term as Senator, than he ever could for California.

He mentioned the record of the Democrats, but dared not talk about how the present administration is fostering socialism. He failed to mention that the Democrats have added $25 billion to the national debt or that they believed it was proper to sell wheat to Russia on credit.

Our government was intended to be the servant of the people, but it is rapidly becoming the master. If a person or community can do for himself, government should not interfer. Under the Democrats, the individuals daily life will be controlled.

Are we to have this federal influence as a permanent part of our lives?

Democratic presidents have led the nation for 23 out of the past 31 years. Under this influence we have had World War II and the Korean War (and World War I under the Democrats), we have seen a great spread of communism, we have witnessed a retreat in foreign policy, and we have seen political scandals of dishonesty that have been almost hushed.

Is this what the people want?

This concentration of power in Washington, D.C. is gradually, but surely, removing the liberty of the individual. It's time we restore dignity and honesty to our national government.

The near-to-the-last straw is permitting a carpetbagger to represent the people of California in Washington.

Let's hope our people will see the light before the genuine "Big Brother" takes over.

Heights Area Development Turned Down

(CNS) — Development plans for an 82-lot subdivision in the San Antonio Heights area were turned down Thursday, Aug. 27, by the County Planning Commission when the developer refused to change his plans to meet flood control requirements.

The applicant was Dr. Stanley Lopat. His property lies north of 26th St. on both sides of the flood control channel, in the area across from Evergreen.

Lorin Morgan, of the planning staff, reported to the commission that the county flood control division felt the plans should be redrawn because of lots and a street in areas believed unsuitable and due to a belief that some of the ground would become unstable from the bulldozing required under the plan.

Morgan added that the developer and his engineer were unwilling to make any changes, after four weeks during which the staff and the developers discussed the county's engineers' concern.

Olin Murrey, engineer for the subdivision, said he did not believe any danger existed.

Commissioner J. H. Paterson asked him if he had been in the area during the 1938 flood. Murrey said he had not, but that he had studied flood control problems and felt the lots in question, the proposed street and the earth would be safe.

Neil Pfulb, county planning director, said he also thought the proposed lots would be too small. "In addition," Pfulb said, "this developer is unwilling to compromise."

The commission then voted to refuse approval of the plans. The flood control department report indicated that its engineers believe about half the lots in the project would be subject to flooding.

Cucamonga Slates Last Wine Lecture

The last in a series of Cucamonga Valley wine technical lecture series will be held Wednesday, Sept. 2 — from 7 p.m. to 9 p.m. at the Cucamonga Vineyard Co., 10013 Eighth St., Cucamonga. San Bernardino County Farm Adviser Chet Hemstreet announcer.

Vernon L. Singleton, of the University of California Enology Department, will bring to local winemakers results of his research on methods of improving and speeding up table wine aging.

Singleton's research the last six years at Davis has also covered the chemistry of wine aging, processing, quality relationships, tannins, and polyphenolics of grapes and wines.

The Cucamonga Vintners & Growers Association has sponsored this lecture series just preceding the annual Grape Festival in Cucamonga. Cooperating in the series are staff members of the Research Department and Agricultural Extension Service of the University of California, according to Hemstreet.

Mr. Mel Hodell
Upland News
Dear Mr. Hodell:

Please accept my apology for not having written you sooner, but when I talked with you, we were preparing to leave on vacation and just didn't get the letter written.

So here we are sitting in the shade of a big pine tree on a river in Oregon, still thinking of your very excellent editorial on the necessity of adequate parks in Upland.

Indeed, too many communities have awakened too late to this very important matter. Twenty years ago I lived in a Southern city whose citizens and city council must have really been wide awake. There was a city ordinance which required that for every square mile of housing, there must be a square block of parks.

No matter where one lived in that city, it was within walking distance of a park. How lovely this was! There was no necessity for youngsters to play in the streets. Indeed, it was illegal.

The parks were not fancy ones. There were four sections in them. A small ball diamond in one quarter, a badmiton court, an area for the very small children and trees. They were unattended, except for the mothers of the small ones who alternated overseeing the little ones.

Older persons pitched horseshoes or sat on a bench and visited.

Would it be possible for the 24th St. Park to have a small stream of water where kids could catch poly-wogs? Could we be a city of parks and homes and industry? Well planned — with a stop put on the apartment house blight and some thought given to the future?

Our grandchildren would bless our memory.

Sincerely yours,
Mrs. John E. Graham

Aug. 27, 1964

Dear Editor:

Chief Justice Earl Warren had NO previous judicial experience when appointed to the highest court of the land. His decisions show utter contempt for the fundamental principles of law. Out of 39 cases dealing with Communism, Warren voted 36 times in favor of the Communists. Which means that 92% of the time Warren gave aid and comfort to America's mortal enemy!

The Supreme Court overruled state laws regarding prayer and Bible-reading in the public schools in June 1963. They refused to review the decision stating that the Communists do not have to register, thus the decision stands. (June 1964.)

Security risks employed by government bureaus cannot be dismissed unless they are in so-called "sensitive" positions. This decision resulted in restoration of 300 security risks to government service. (Cole vs. Young, 1946.)

If a teacher has Communist leanings he now can be reinstated and given back pay. (Slochower vs. Board of Education, 1956.)

These rulings are destroying our country and threatening the freedoms that men have fought and died to preserve down through the years. Certainly Earl Warren should be investigated by Congress in the protection of the security of our country in light of recent decisions made, and removed from his office.

Sincerely,
Mrs. David Chodan
